Applications will be accepted on a first come, first served basis; priority will be given to first-time families who have not previously received services at the Children's Bereavement Center of South Texas (CBCST). Please note that submitting a Camp Application does not guarantee a spot at Camp.

Before we can enroll your child/children in camp services, you will need to complete the following:

- Phone Intake Appointment: Intake staff will collect detailed demographic information (including custody documentation) over the phone.
- Phone Biopsychosocial Assessment: A therapist will gather information about your family, including any traumatic experiences, mental health history, medical information, behavioral concerns, and accommodations.
- In-Person Assessment: If risk-related concerns are identified during this assessment, we will request an in-person assessment at CBCST prior to making any recommendation on services.
